

Some Potential Question to Ask in Seeking What You and Your Child Need:

1. What activities does/would your child enjoy?

2. Where could you find these activities/resources?

3. What would be a question you could ask of key decision makers (e.g., local service providers, community members, decision makers) to make these resources accessible for your child?

4. What is a first step you could take?
